

Folding Forks

Folding forks are predominately used when space is an issue. The fork hinges just above the heel to fold vertically and is held in place with a retention chain. Cross sectional lifting capacity is reduced by 50% over standard ITA forks.

