

Rubber Bonded Fork Sleeves

In addition to the fork extension range we offer the rubber bonding of the top face of the sleeve in 6mm high impact rubber to protect the surface of a finished product that cannot be palletised ie. Stainless Steel pressings, painted products, timber structures etc. This process can also be applied directly onto the blade and back height of the actual fork also.

